Assignment 7 No 4 – IT2351 – Jennifer Howard

If the guitar database was used in a production environment, explain the following:
   a. Circumstances for implementing each of the four privilege levels.
   b. How you would group the privileges into roles.

Privileges
Global: Someone needs to needs to keep the entire system functioning and maintained. This person would also manipulate databases for efficiency and be able to shut down the system for a major update or fix a freeze. And the below
Database: Someone who would write functions and programs, add new tables, delete obsolete tables, and schedule time for larger projects to run. And the below
Table: Someone who would be able to create, update, and delete some (specified) information. And the below
Column: Someone who would need access to the information via queries procedures and functions and create reports.

Roles
Owner: GLOBAL – The head IT person
Manager: DATABASE – Business Owner and other administrative people
Store: TABLE – retail workers inside the stores
Customer: COLUMN – for customer online accounts